

TURKS SEIZE BRITISH STEAMERS AT SMYRNA; BOMBARD RUSSIAN PORT

TURKISH CRUISERS REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL IN ATTACK ON BLACK SEA STRONG.

FRANCE DECLARES WAR

Joins England and Russia in War Against Turkey—Egyptian Khedive Issues Note of Defiance to England.

London, Nov. 6.—The Exchange Telegraph company has given out a dispatch from its Liverpool correspondent saying that the Turks have seized the British steamers, Assiout and City of Khartoum at Smyrna.

Explosion on Warship.

Constantinople, via Sofia and London, Nov. 6.—According to a Turkish official announcement the British warships bombarding the Dardanelles were struck by a shot from one of the forts and an explosion on board resulted.

A British steamer, it is also stated, has been sunk off Alvala, Asia Minor, after the crew and cargo had been put ashore.

Bombard Russian Port.

Amsterdam, via London, Nov. 6.—The Vossische Zeitung has published a dispatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, saying that Turkish cruisers have successfully bombarded the Russian fortified seaport of Batumi, on the east shore of the Black Sea.

Statement from Khedive.

Berlin, via the Hague and London, Nov. 6.—The Frankfurter Zeitung publishes a dispatch from Constantinople correspondent in which he transmits an interview with the Khedive of Egypt. The Khedive expressed himself as astonished by the reported British annexation of Egypt. The people of Egypt soon would recognize, the Khedive declared, that the situation created by the British could not continue. The British soon would see that the annexation of the historic and holy territory of Egypt would be of only a temporary character.

Triangle of Battle.

London, Nov. 6.—The latest reports from the western battle front reaching London from Dutch sources indicate that the Germans have retired from the Yser, but the fighting is said to be proceeding with the triangle of Ypres, Dixmude and Roulers.

The latest official communications are evidence that the German assaults are becoming less intense and there are some indications of the resumption of the offensive on the part of the allies, with the Belgians reported as occupying both banks of the Yser and forcing the Germans in that neighborhood to retire on Bruges. In the reports, however, there is no disposition among the allies to be over confident. Some hint of this is found in the revived interest in London in the Russian military campaign against the Turks.

The hope that the advance on the eastern German frontier will become such a menace that Berlin will be compelled to recall several seasonal corps from the western front to meet the new danger.

No Effect on Russia.

It is not believed here that the Turkish advance in the field of combat will greatly affect the Russian campaign against the Teutonic allies. Russia has three army corps in the Caucasus, none of which has been drawn for service elsewhere in the east.

Russia is reported successfully to have invaded Armenia with four army corps. And the Turkish forces in that district are said to be today outnumbered than they have been for some weeks past.

Russian troops are reported as at present well across the Turkish borders and the fighting is proceeding along the front estimated from 100 to 200 miles.

Reported little activity along the Russian border and indications of the German having reached selected positions along the river. Warther, are expected to check the onrush of the Russian armies. Vienna admits that the Austrians have crossed the river Danube and the Austrian armies facing the Russian have been evidently are in a position to maintain a stubborn defense.

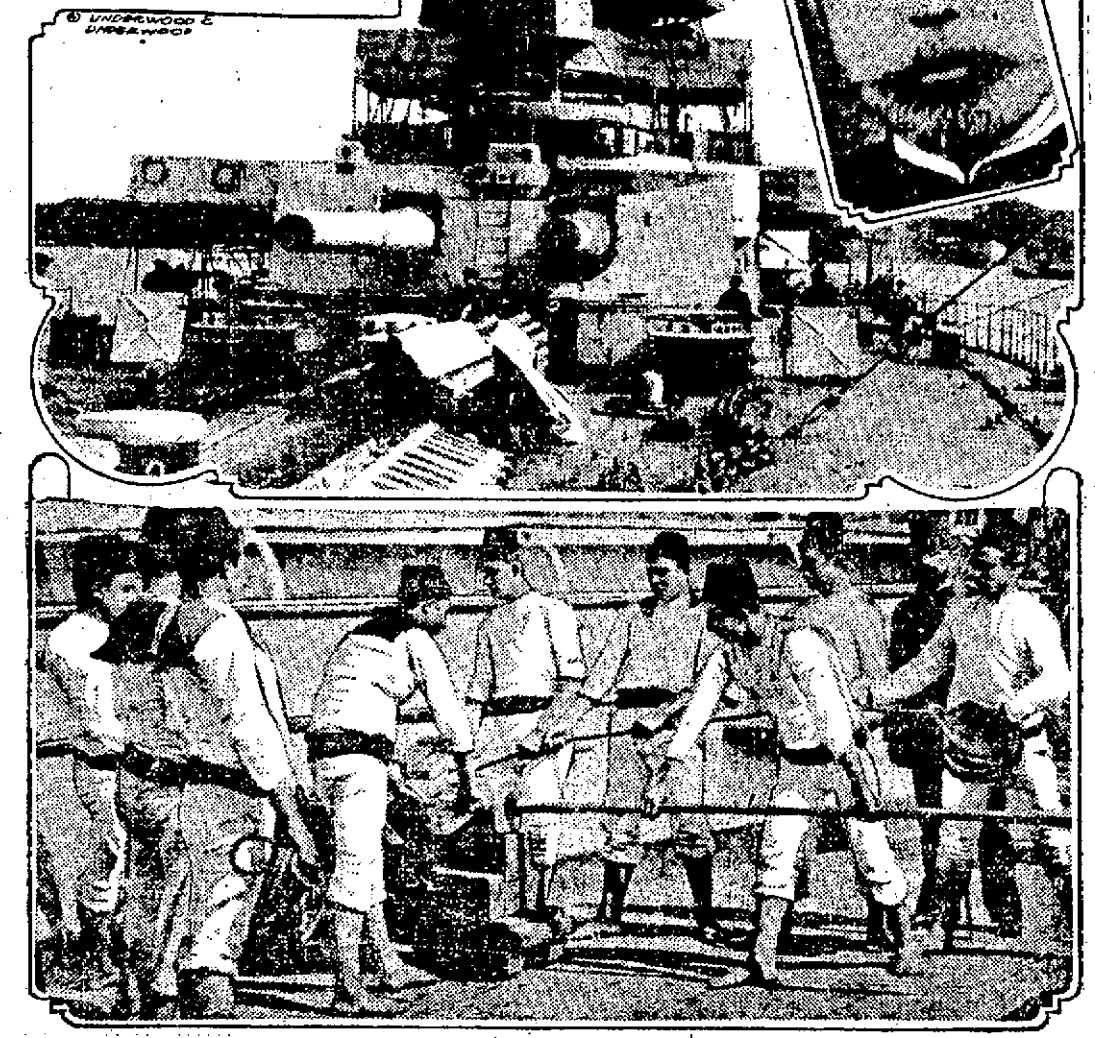

Naval Fight on Turkey.

England's warfare against Turkey is still more likely so to remain a naval war. The British fleet is likely to be engaged in the Mediterranean and the Turkish fleet is likely to be engaged in the Black Sea.

The British fleet is likely to be engaged in the Mediterranean and the Turkish fleet is likely to be engaged in the Black Sea.

TURK CRUISER GOEBEN PLAYS HAVOC WITH RUSSIAN SHIPPING

The Turkish battle cruiser Goeben, secured from Germany since the outbreak of the war, has torpedoed and sunk at least two Russian steamers in the outer roadstead at Kertch, Caucasus. It is said that the officers and some of the gunners of the Goeben are Germans. The other members of the crew are Turks.

DENTIST ARRESTED ON GIRL'S CHARGES

Dr. F. C. Meyers of Edgerton, Must Face Trial on Civil Warrant in Sensational Case.

Dr. F. C. Meyers of Edgerton, has been arrested on a civil warrant in an action instituted against him by Miss Betty A. Bruhn, of that city. He has an undertaking for his appearance at the trial for $2,500, signed by C. H. Babcock and A. Melnikoff as sureties.

According to the complaint, which was filed today in the circuit court of this county by Thomas S. Nolan, the plaintiff's attorney, Miss Bruhn is a minor, residing in Edgerton. Dr. Meyers is a dentist, practicing in that city. On the 30th of July last, it is alleged she visited his office on business, when the complaint alleges, he made an assault upon her and indecent proposals to her. She further alleges that by reason of the assault she was made sick and lame and suffered a great nervous shock.

Robert J. Bruhn, who is employed by William Brothers, is her father, and has been appointed guardian ad litem for the purpose of prosecuting the action, which is instituted to recover damages against the defendant in the sum of $2,500.

Notice of an adverse examination of the plaintiff before F. C. Burpee, circuit court commissioner, on Wednesday next at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, has been served by Hal R. Martin of Edgerton, the defendant's attorney. The Bruhn girl will probably be interrogated fully at the time concerning the facts stated in the complaint.

GERMAN MINE SINKS THE CRUISER YORCK

Loss of German Warship Not Due to Hostile Attack, Berlin Claims—266 Men Missing.

Berlin, via the Hague and London, Nov. 6.—A report reaching here from Wilhelmshaven shows that 266 men are missing from the crew of the German cruiser Yorck which was sunk recently off the North Sea coast of Germany as a result of accidental contact with a German mine. 244 members of the crew including the commander and the first officer were taken off by other vessels.

Only the scantiest authentic details of the German cruiser Yorck are available here. The admiralty has received from Wilhelmshaven little beyond the announcement of the time and place of the accident and the number of men saved.

Sunk by German Mine.

A fuller report, it is expected, will probably be available soon. It is definitely announced, however, that the sinking was due to a German mine and not hostile attacks. The ship was under way and probably swung outside the channel through a mine field and touched one of the powerful German mines which made short work of the big cruiser.

In the conduct of the crew in the moment of disaster is described as exemplary and there is much regret over the destruction of the cruiser, the heaviest individual loss as yet sustained by the German navy.

Firing Heard at Dover.

Dover, Eng., Nov. 6.—Heavy firing was heard off Dover this morning. It could not be ascertained whether the firing was due to a naval engagement in the North Sea.

COMMISSION GIVES RAILWAY DECISION

Interstate Commission Orders Trunk Lines to Make Divisions With Steel Company's Lines.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The supplemental decision today in the industrial railway case, the interstate commerce commission directed the trunk line railroad to re-establish allowances or divisions with the United States Steel Corporation railways and lines which are conceded to be common carriers. Tens of thousands of dollars annually will accrue to the industrial lines through the decision.

CECILIE CONVOYED TO BOSTON HARBOR

North German Lloyd Steamer Which Has Been Bottled in Bar Harbor, Me., Changes Port of Internment.

Bar Harbor, Me., Nov. 6.—The three months' stay here of the interned North German Lloyd line steamer, Kron Princessin Cecilie, ended today when, conveyed by the United States destroyers Terry and Lamson, she started for Boston. The weather was fair with a moderate breeze when the steamer with one destroyer a short distance ahead and the other close astern departed at 4:00 a. m. It was expected that she would reach Boston late in the afternoon.

The change in the port of internment was made because it was considered that the anchorage here would be dangerous during the winter storms, although it was intended to steam within the three mile limit as far as possible. No interference was anticipated, as the governments at war with Germany had given official assurance that none of her war vessels would molest the steamer on her voyage to Boston.

TWO HUNDRED DEAD IS JAPANESE LOSS

Casualty List of Killed and Wounded Posted at Tokio—Tsing Tau Fight Continues.

Tokio, Nov. 6.—A complete casualty list containing the names of the killed and wounded to date in the operations around Tsing Tau show that the British had two killed and eight wounded, their wounded including two majors, and the Japanese had two hundred killed and 875 wounded.

The official communication issued by the government today states that the bombardment of Tsing Tau continues. They also state that aeroplanes are dropping bombs into the siege forts.

The Japanese general staff explains that the assault on the main positions along Tsing Tau, the Iltis, Bismarck and Molke must be deferred until after the capture of the four forts south of the Haipo river, where being strong defenses the German artillery and infantry are making a determined stand. The four forts are 2,400 feet from the Japanese trenches.

DR. HARPER REPORTS LOWEST DEATH RATE

Unusual Health Conditions Have Prevailed in Wisconsin During Last Quarter.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 6.—"The death rate in Wisconsin for the months of July, August and September this year represents the lowest death rate for this season of the year that has ever been known in this state since the adoption of the uniform law providing for the accurate registration of deaths occurring in the state."

This was the statement of Dr. C. A. Harper, state health officer, today. During these three months 5,716 deaths were reported to the state board of health. This corresponds to an annual death rate of 9.7 per 1,000 of gross estimated population. Comparing this rate with the rate of 10.8 per 1,000 for 1908, a rate of 11 per 1,000 for 1909, a rate of 11.8 per 1,000 for 1910, a rate of 10.8 per 1,000 for 1911, a rate of 9.9 per 1,000 for 1912 and a rate of 10.6 per 1,000 for 1913, shows the death rate is lower for the past three months than in any year.

"This desirable condition of affairs is due almost entirely to the very appreciable decline in the number of deaths from the various preventable diseases," said Dr. Harper. "Without a single exception, the number of deaths reported from the so-called preventable diseases for July, August and September, 1914, is less than the number reported for the same period of time in 1913. For one single case there is a marked decline in the number of deaths of persons under one year of age, one to four years of age and over. For the deaths under one year the decrease is 155, for the age groupings of one to four the decrease is 122 and for the age groupings 5 and over, the decrease is 91.

Since the season of the year covered by this report is usually the time when a considerable increase in the number of deaths is expected from typhoid fever, Dr. Harper believes there is reason for the state congratulating itself on the actual decline in the number of deaths from this source.

HUSTING LEADING BY TWO THOUSAND ON LATE REPORTS

MANY PRECINCTS TO BE HEARD FROM MAY CHANGE PRESENT FIGURES.

PHILIPP HAS 25,000

Blaine Is Bad Third—338 Precincts Still to Be Heard From in Northern Part of the State.

Milwaukee, Nov. 6.—Consensus of opinion today is that Paul Husting of Mayville, democratic nominee for the United States senate, has won the election by a majority of something over fifteen hundred votes.

While the returns are not yet complete, 338 precincts in the northern part of the state being unaccounted for as yet, Husting leads by anywhere from 1,500 to 2,000. It may be possible that the returns that come in may change the totals, but it is practically certain unless the official count shows decided differences Husting is elected.

One Milwaukee newspaper claims to have practically complete returns and places Husting's final at 1,555. A second newspaper claims Husting's election by 1,627, with 338 precincts to be heard from. A third newspaper credits Husting with 2,105, with returns from three counties to be heard from.

It is most certain that there will be an official count after the official canvass of the various counties is completed, as the figures differ so materially from the figures received on Wednesday morning. Both the democratic and republican state chairmen claim the election for their party candidates.

Philipp still maintains his original lead with 338 precincts still to be heard from, even gaining materially. The vote at present is listed as follows: Philipp, 134,632; Karel, 108,284, and Blaine, 107,250. Husting has a few campaign managers, who claimed he would receive close to a hundred thousand in the state.

The missing districts two years ago gave McGovern a majority over Karel, and it is expected will give McGovern a vote for senatorship and Philipp an increased vote for governor.

Later revised election returns from practically every county in Wisconsin, as compiled by the Milwaukee Journal, but with the exception of a few precincts not heard from give Husting, democrat, for United States senator, 125,750, and McGovern, republican, 124,308, showing a plurality for Husting of 1,442. It is generally conceded that an official count will be necessary to decide the winner.

TWO BOY ROBBERS SHOT NEAR WAUSAU

Posse Headed By Detective Schwister Are Captured Near Kelly, in Woods.

Wausau, Nov. 6.—In a gun fight today between two boy robbers and a posse headed by Detective Schwister, in the woods near Kelly, the boys were shot, but the third, the head of the posse, was not heard from. The boys had made their escape Wednesday night, after robbing a Wausau saloon of $250. In their getaway they took refuge from Detective Schwister and later compelled the conductor at point of a gun to stop his train near a wooded section in the vicinity of Kelly. The identity of the boys is not known.

SHERMAN'S MARGIN OF VICTORY GAINS

Republican Senator From Illinois Is Re-elected by Plurality of 17,000 Over Sullivan.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Complete unofficial returns from every county in the state today showed that Lawrence V. Sherman, republican, was elected to the United States senate, Tuesday, by a plurality of 17,000 over Roger C. Sullivan, democrat. The entire republican vote was 144,212. It is generally conceded that an official count will be necessary to decide the winner.

TUBERCULOSIS CURE BANNED BY EXPERTS

Dr. Friedman's Method of Treating Dreaded Disease Has Seal of Disapproval Placed Upon It.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The seal of official disapproval has been placed upon the tuberculosis "cure" brought to this country in 1913 by Dr. Friedman, of Berlin, Germany. The announcement was made today by the United States public health service in making public an abstract of the reports of its investigation in hospital and laboratories where a test of the Friedman culture were made. It declared that consultation of the American physicians are in line with previous reports both in this country and abroad, which have refuted Dr. Friedman's claims for the discovery of a specific cure for tuberculosis.

General Advance of Entire Russian Front Is Now Expected at Petrograd—Jaroslavl Captured.

Petrograd, Nov. 6.—According to Russian information, Wirballen is the only obstacle to a general advance of the whole Russian front into East Prussia. The Germans, it is declared, soon will have to evacuate, being threatened by a flanking movement of the Russians.

The backward movement of the remainder of the German line left this point without sufficient support.

The Russian consul general at Constantinople arriving at Odessa stated that the Turkish officials were as surprised as Russia by the sudden offensive taken by the Turkish fleet in the Black Sea. The consul general said:

"The news of the Turkish bombardment became known in Constantinople some time after the occurrence, admitting that Turkey was fully prepared for war, nevertheless German actions precipitated the crisis."

Russians Take Jaroslavl.

The Russians have recaptured the town of Jaroslavl, in seventeen miles northwest of the Austrian fortress of Przemyel. The Austrian attack, the message says, finally has broken down and the Austrians are now in retreat along the river San.

Now has formally declared war against Turkey and her advent may be expected to have a marked effect on the part of the allies.

INTEREST SHOWN IN BELGIUM RELIEF FUND

LISTS CAN BE FOUND AT FOUR BANKS, BAKER'S DRUG STORE AND GAZETTE OFFICE.

BENEFITS PLANNED FOR

One Theatre Manager Plans for Special Entertainment the Proceeds of Which Will Go to Swell Money Raised.

Janesville and Rock county residents are awakening to the call for financial aid for the unfortunate people of Belgium who find themselves without homes or food as a result of the invasion of their country by the German hosts and the despoliation of their cities, workshops and fields by the forces of both the Allies and Germans in the fierce conflict that is being waged there.

The subscription lists have been placed at the four banks, at Baker's Drug Store and at the Gazette office. Individual societies desiring copies can procure them at the Gazette office.

Mme. Lalla Vandervelde, wife of the Belgian premier, is in the United States raising relief funds for her war-stricken people. She says thousands of Belgian women and children will starve to death within the next few weeks unless Americans come to their aid.

Several of the ladies of the city are planning for special entertainments to help swell the fund. The money will be forwarded to some authoritative source to be used where it is most needed. E. J. Vanthine, Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary for Belgium at Washington and the Belgian Consul General in Chicago, Henrietta, have been written as to who should receive the money when raised.

Manager Earle Theatres is planning for a special benefit performance at one of his theatres for the early part of next week, the money raised being donated to the general fund. Several ladies plan to take individual lists out and much interest has been shown in the whole affair. The contributions should be in cash only, as there is no means to forward supplies directly and no request has been made for clothing or any supplies but what money can buy.

GANG OF THIEVES HEADED THIS WAY

Recent burglaries in Rockford and Beloit Cause Chief Champion to Issue Warning.

Janesville is likely to experience a visit from a gang of clever sneak thieves that have a decided inclination to loot the homes of the wealthy. The gang is not at home. Last week the thieves looted the Peterson home on Harlem avenue, Rockford, and made away with two hundred dollars' worth of silverware and jewelry, while the Petersons were auto riding.

Beloit was the next stop and the "jimmies" experts called at the T. I. Thurlow home, 1014 Emerson street, Saturday evening. The family is visiting in Canada. Solid silverware to the extent of a hundred dollars, and watches of high value were taken. Janesville naturally would be the next stop of the thieves, but Chief Champion expressed a hope that a warning would convince the night visitors that Janesville should not be included on their calling list.

Faces As Fair As A Summer's Day

Are Possible If Stuart's Calcium Waters Are Used for a Short Time After Each Meal.

Many people have been heard to say that they used creams and lotions for years without effect, yet after five or six days of Stuart's Calcium Waters their complexions were perfectly clear.

"I Got Rid of Blackheads in a Jiffy by using Stuart's Calcium Waters."

It's easy to understand why. Creams and lotions only get at the surface, while Stuart's Calcium Waters go right into the blood and instead of a sluggish deposit in the skin the impurities that cause skin diseases are destroyed in the perspiration that is exhaled through the pores in the form of invisible vapor. You'll never have a good complexion without pure blood, but you positively will have a fine, beautiful complexion if you use Stuart's Calcium Waters.

They contain no poisonous drug of any kind, are perfectly harmless and can be taken with absolute freedom, and they work almost like magic. Calcium Sulphide, their principal ingredient, is the greatest blood-cleanser known to science.

No matter how bad your skin may be, Stuart's Calcium Waters will quickly work wonders with it. It's goodby to blackheads, pimples, acne, boils, rash, eczema and a dirty "faded-up" complexion. You can get a box of Stuart's Calcium Waters at any drug store at 50 cents a box, and you will be positively delighted with their wonderful effect. A small sample package mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., 175 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Facts About the Cyclone.

A cyclone is freakish, but its pranks enable scientists to gather certain facts about it. First of all, the velocity of the wind can be calculated to a certain extent. The whirling speed of the cyclone is tremendous. The average velocity within the vortex of 600 such storms was found to be 392 miles an hour, the minimum being 270 and the maximum 800.

ATTENDED BIDWELL REUNION AT BUFFALO

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore D. Bidwell of This City Were Present at Annual Event, October 17 to 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore D. Bidwell, who reside on Holmes street, in this city, have returned from Buffalo, New York, where they attended the sixth annual Bidwell family reunion, and also the 50th anniversary of the death of General Daniel Davidson Bidwell of the 49th regiment, who met death on the battlefield, October 19th, 1864, at Cedar Creek, Virginia.

There were over a hundred members of the historic family present at the celebration. The anniversary was held on October the 17th, 18th and 19th at the Hotel Stabler, in Buffalo.

Daniel Doane Bidwell, who has just returned from the war countries, where he was a correspondent, entertained for a time on his thrilling experiences. A detailed history of the famous family was read. Patriotic music was rendered, and the event was concluded by a photographer, who snapped a picture of the group.

The family also officers every year. The annual celebration is a remarkable one, and involves Bidwells from all over the United States. The reunion will be held at Hartford Connecticut, in 1915. One member of the family, Rev. Sedgewick Woodford Bidwell, residing at Willbury, Vermont, will be 105 years of age, if he lives until December the fifth.

LAWRENCE FAVORITE IN ANNUAL CONTEST

Catlin's Team and Beloit Eleven Are Both Set for Crucial Battle for State Championship Tomorrow.

There is generally one Saturday during a football season, when the secondary colleges throughout the country send their teams into the field to play the "big" games of the day. This is especially true this fall, and tomorrow at Beloit, Lawrence, three times state champion, will clash with Dana Evans' gold and black team, in what is termed the state championship battle.

Both teams are on edge for the crucial contest. Lawrence rule the favorites, although there is some Beloit money to be had. Garrity and Fack, fullback and guard respectively, may not play for the Beloiters, and it is certain that Hinton will be succeeded by Wallace for Lawrence. No matter who plays, the fighting spirit will not be hindered. In fact, there will be more of it, and Lawrence well knows what sort of a game Beloit displays on her own field.

CHAMP VISITS CITY; WANTS MAT MATCHES

Walter Weight Title Holder Here Attempting to Arrange Wrestling Exhibitions.

Walter Evans, walter weight wrestling champion of the world, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Evans is desirous of putting on a wrestling match in Janesville and was in conference here with several promoters of this nature.

Evans has two matches scheduled for next week in Illinois. This morning he left for Chicago where the last few days of training will be completed.

On December 1 he will go to the University of Illinois where he has been engaged to instruct the varsity boys in the tricks of Frank Gotch. His home is at El Paso, Ill.

BOSTON TECH TRACK IS WORLD'S FINEST.

[By Associated Press.] Boston, Nov. 6.—The finest athletic track in the world will be formally opened today at the field day of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The engineering students whose field it is, claim that it is not exceeded by any other field in the world. It is in Cambridge and constructed on land owned by the institute. The track is one quarter mile, with two turns, each turn being about 345 feet long with sides about 315 feet. It is 20 feet in width throughout its entire length with an extra eight feet in width on the east side, allowing a wide straightway for the 220 yard

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK CROSS, FEVERISH

When Constipated or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

JUNIORS AND SOPHS WIN; POND IS HURT

Seniors Are Beaten 19 to 0, While Freshies Lose Hard Battle, 7 to 0—Interest Was Taken.

Two brilliant games, by four class teams, representing the first, second, third and fourth year squads from the Janesville high school, were played yesterday afternoon at the Driving Park grounds, when the sophomores defeated the seniors 19 to 0, and the freshmen 7 to 0, and the juniors were victors over the seniors, 19 to 0.

Edwin Pond, right halfback for the sophomores, broke his collarbone in the third quarter of the opening battle, and had to be rushed to his home. He played excellent football up to the time the accident occurred, which came during a hard tackle. The accident is the first of the season in this locality.

HE'S ONE OF STAGG'S CLASSY FOOTBALLERS

The little now meets between the sophomores and juniors for the championship of the school. This contest will be played within a week, say the respective captains. A good attendance of students and rooters attended the games yesterday. The lineups were as follows:

Juniors—Lowry, L. E.; Williams, L. T.; Hine, L. E.; Marshall, R. E.; May, R. E.; Ford, C.; McDermott, Q. B.; Capt. Drake, L. H.; S. Ryan, R. H.; McCulloch, J. B.

Sport Snap Shots

It is just possible that American athletic followers may yet see W. R. Applegarth, the great British sprinter, in action this year. The British champion still cherishes a strong desire to pay a visit to the United States. Applegarth has not been called for service with England's army, neither will he unless England is forced to resort to conscription. Though Applegarth has done little or no indoor running, he will at once take himself to the board tracks if he comes to America. The Briton is no householder runner. He ran at his best pace over an old kind of a track, and there's no runner sprinter on this earth today who can duck around a sharp turn and faster than Applegarth. Those who have seen him in action in the handicaps on some of the little English tracks are firm in the belief that with a month's practice the Britisher would be a "bear" on the American indoor tracks.

Cornell's 21 to 0 victory over Pennsylvania last Thanksgiving, the first Cornell had taken from Penn. in years, came through the squad breaking training the night before the game. Coach Al Sharpe commanded his players to do anything they wished as long as they stayed out late. He then allowed all to sleep until they were ready to get up the morning of the game. Sharpe had a reason in his seeming madness. Cornell teams were so used to being defeated by Penn. Sharpe found the players always spent the night before and the morning of the game worrying and wondering what fiasco would arise to bring them another defeat. So instead of following the usual custom of guarding his men closely on the eve of the big game he made them do things that would tire them out and cause them to get a good night's sleep instead of lying awake worrying.

Fred J. Murphy, coach of Northwestern university, is playing in a new role. Murphy played football three years at Andover and three years at Yale. In all that time he did not engage in a losing game. At Northwestern things are far different. Northwestern is a steady loser. But Murphy has them fighting and expects victories to start coming. Northwestern's way before his three-year contract expires.

*The game with Wisconsin Oct. 31.

Saturday will be an off day on the gridiron with four of the conference teams—Chicago, Wisconsin, Illinois and Minnesota—resting and preparing for semi-final struggles next Saturday. Interest in the east centers on the intersectional combats between Michigan and Pennsylvania, Purdue and Kentucky and the outcome of the Harvard-Princeton "big four" title game.

Only two games are on the conference schedule, Indiana and Ohio, which are to determine which team will sink down the "big nine" ladder to keep Northwestern company. Iowa meets Northwestern and the latter is hoped to add another of her Stegeman.

Having played classy ball in all the big Maroon contests to date, Stegeman seems reasonably sure of his "O." His job is left guard.

defeats, which will make the Evans-ton school undisputed cellar champs, her usual landing place. During the past week coaches on the three leading teams have been spending every effort to perfect their teams for games on Nov. 14, when Wisconsin battles Minnesota and Illinois tackles Stagg's Maroons.

The Illinois-Chicago struggle locates up to be the most important since the downstaters have the Gophers' scalp safely tucked away, showing their stability power, which clearly won the Minnesota game for them. Zupke's had his eleven in perfect condition and when the game came in the last quarter they pounded a victory across because they had more reserve strength. "Watch Illinois" has become the conference slogan and it is hoped that Chicago will be unable to check Zupke's warriors without Halback "Doll" Grey being in the game. The loss of Grey in the Wisconsin game was a keen one to Stagg for he is a player of unusual ability and the Maroon's best ground gainer.

"Watch Illinois." Wisconsin is jubilant of the "victory" over Chicago and is being primed to beat Dr. Williams' aggregation next Saturday. The Gophers are crippled somewhat as the result of the Illinois game, but all the injured players should be ready to attempt to down the naughty and confident Wisconsin. On Nov. 21 Wisconsin meets Illinois and if the Illinois bunch defeat Chicago, this contest should settle the title—there are a fatal lot of "ifs" to consider. Purdue, after two weeks' rest and preparation, should defeat Kentucky state Saturday with ease, for the Bollermakers are in condition and one of the strongest eleven in the conference, although defeated by Wisconsin and Chicago.

Princeton Strong. The dope on the Princeton-Harvard game at Cambridge is confusing when scores are considered for the Tigers, barely escaped defeat at the hands of Williams last Saturday, while Harvard throughout the season has made a disappointing record. Last year Brickley defeated Princeton, booting over a lone goal and because of the Crimson's poor form, it would not be surprising if the Tigers bumped Harvard Saturday.

Michigan is picked to defeat Pennsylvania without the easterners showing a decided reversal of form, for they have been playing inconsistent football this season. They have hit their stride during the last two games and the Michigan contest has been the "big game" on their schedule, which will mean the team being in the best condition possible.

Nebraska, a contender for the western championship, has a practice game scheduled with Moringside. Yale will have a test of her recuperated strength in Brown, a second rate team, in preparing for the Princeton game to follow next Saturday. If Harvard defeats Princeton tomorrow the Tigers will probably suffer defeat at the hands of Yale, the schedule with these two teams on consecutive weeks being too severe.

Carlisle plays Holy Cross and the Redskins will have a "tough" time to break their losing streak.

State Games.

Janesville promises to be well represented in attendance at the annual Beloit-Lawrence fight for the state title, to be staged at Beloit Saturday.

The struggle promises to be bitter, for the eleven appear evenly matched, although Lawrence is conceded to have an edge on the game. Beloit pulled through the Ripon game with a victory, although crippled by injury and the loss of the first string quarter.

Beloit has that 9 to 0 defeat to wipe out from last year, while Lawrence has a clear path to the title if they succeed in downing Evans' protégés, who have been showing an abundance of winning fight spirit this year.

Carol will have a hard fight on her hands, meeting Lake Forest at Waukegan. The losing Marquette eleven will attempt to brace and win a game against Creighton.

GAMES SATURDAY. Carlisle vs. Holy Cross. Cornell vs. R. and M. Dartmouth vs. Tufts. Grinnell vs. Monmouth. Harvard vs. Ohio State. Marquette vs. Creighton. Mt. Union vs. Michigan Aggies. Northwestern vs. Iowa. Noy vs. Fordham. Army vs. Notre Dame. Yale vs. Brown.

JANESVILLE GUN CLUB SHOOT AT BELOIT TODAY

Members of the Janesville Gun Club today contested in the second inter-city shoot, which was held at Beloit this afternoon. Ten gun men from Janesville and Beloit together with the same number from the Capron and Rockford clubs. The first shoot was held in this city and was won by the Rockford club by seven targets over the Janesville shooters.

An additional trap has been added to the equipment of the Beloit club, and excellent scores are expected to be made because of the favorable weather. Rockford by winning today's shoot will clinch her hold on first place in the inter-city league.

CHIP-CLABBY MATCH PROMISES TO BE LAST IN SAN FRANCISCO

With the anti-prize fight amendment on the California fight laws, through women's votes, the twenty round bout between Clabby and Murray in Frisco on the ninth promises to be the last in the state that has scheduled more championship matches than any other in the nation. The mill between Murray and Clabby will go far to settle the rightful claimant to the middleweight honors.

Los Angeles instead of Berlin may be the scene of the 1916 Olympic games. The Los Angeles playground commission has taken steps to secure this event for the city, and Superintendent Rait has been empowered to see the proper authorities and put in a bid for the biggest athletic event in the world's history. If the big event is secured it will be held in the big Exposition park stadium, the plans for which were drawn up some time ago by Architect W. D. Cook and which is in the course of being constructed at the present time.

Read Gazette want ads.

What use has been made of the forward pass has shown it to be the best ground gaining play ever introduced in football, but it appears the time is far distant when the pass will be used as much as are line bucks and end runs. Although the pass is three years old the teams still are afraid to use it except as a last resort. Most big colleges prefer to hammer away at the line as long as there is any hope of scoring on straight football. The time probably will come, if the rules are not altered, when football will consist mainly of forward passes, making it a sort of outdoor basketball.

Bombardier Wells has been matched to meet Frank Moran of Pittsburgh in a ten-round bout in London, at an early date half of the proceeds to go to the Belgian relief fund.

THE BELGIANS.

It is not a question of the rights or wrongs of the present European struggle that should appeal to the persons donating for the relief of the needy inhabitants of Belgium. The question has been raised that the funds solicited might not reach the right source of distribution. It might be said here that the plans for the distribution of the fund lay entirely with the source which is best equipped to handle it.
The consul from Belgium, at Chicago, ton, have been recommended by the committee for the best means of distribution of it. While Rock county may not give such a large amount of money, every dollar subscribed will be placed where it will do the most good. The sooner it is subscribed the quicker will the suffering thousands in Belgium receive relief.

Thus far the war has been waged on Belgium soil. Lying aside the rights or wrongs of the invasion of the German host into Belgium territory the fact remains that the citizens of this country have suffered most bitterly. War in all its horrors has visited its cities, has laid waste its villages, has driven its countryside its inhabitants are refugees from the despoliation of the armies of both the allies and the invading hosts.
The Germans, and in consequence are in dire need. Not only is food needed but money is also necessary if they preserve their lives and their integrity during the next few months.

While America has no part in the great struggle, while its sympathies should not be unduly aroused on one side or the other, the need of the suffering people of the Belgians should appeal to them and they should make their contributions readily and gladly.
It is the cause of humanity that is to be aided, not any side of the great war.

The Gazette has placed lists for contribution in the banks, at the Baker drug store and the Gazette office and the money thus received will be forwarded quickly to the point where it is most needed. In making this step the Gazette is merely working in the cause of humanity regardless of the rights or wrongs of the controversy that has caused Europe to become the boiling pot of armed conflict.

THE COMPACT.

It has been exploited that the campaign of J. J. Blaine of Bosobel, the independent candidate for governor, was only created to give the anti-Karek democrats an opportunity for covering their defeat from their party and the disgruntled anti-McGovern republicans a chance to trade their votes for Hasting. The result of the election has proven it. The action of Senator La Follette, the man who created the primary law, who originated the Mary Ann law, who boasted that "with these two laws the people can never remove us from power," in repudi-ating his word, throwing his doctrines of party regularity to the winds the first time the laws ever had a genuine test and advocating the election of Blaine, has shown his hand most clearly. La Follette, retained out of the state before the primaries. He dared not take part in the primary campaign in favor of either Hutton or Dahl, both his fast friends and chosen lieutenants.
Illness kept him from the state, but the moment he had an opportunity he defied the edicts of his physician, rose from a sick bed, tore his collar and nursed his hair in the old style and delivered his message—his "message to God's patient poor." Unfortunately they did not listen and La Follette will return to Washington a wiser and sadder man. Whether his sun has set in Wisconsin remains a question, but it is safe to say that if some strong conservative republican announces his candidacy for the United States senate to succeed Robert M. La Follette, upon a safe and sane platform the voters of Wisconsin will flock to his standard. The Gazette has no candidate to suggest but the time is

THE SKELETON.

The world has wondered why France has not accomplished more of its own self-defense and national preservation than it has. Why its troops have not been better prepared to meet the emergency that has arisen.
The following excerpt from a recent article on the first month of the present war may explain many things, though not to the credit of the French.
"All over Paris one still sees the now pathetic picture of France rescuing Alsace. Lieutenant France, mid-smoke and shell, there embraces beautiful Miss Alsace, while gallant soldiers tear down the boundary post of the frontier. This allegorical picture haunts every news stand with its two promise. For, alas! that rescue, so long, so ardently hoped for,
has, for the moment, failed. Mul-house has been entered and evacuated; it has been re-occupied and again deserted. So, in the Place de la Concorde, the statue of Strasbourg, this August, has been alternately beckoned with flowers and grapes. Back, back, back our little princess, crawl over the map over the Vosges, scurrying into France.
"Again Paris demanded: 'What the devil is wrong now?' Only one paper was bold enough to explain. It was the Fifteenth Army Corps that was rotten this time. And next day, Lord!
how the fishwives and vegetable women in the great market of Paris, the Halles, were screaming from one to another. 'Ah, these cowardly Marsailais! The Marseillaise never were Frenchmen, and never will be!
Shot in the back!
"Furious were the military censors that morning, for never before had the name of a regiment or division been mentioned. The indiscreet paper was sharply rebuked and the corps from Provence was white-washed—praised for their bravery the day afterward, for holding their own after having been 'surprised.'
"Surprised, yes, that was it. Surprised so much that they turned tail and ran for ten miles, as all Paris knows today. Why weren't the first of these panic-stricken troops shot down in their tracks by their own officers before they had stamped an army? Only the captains and majors know, and they will never tell.
"What is the answer? Politics.
French politics—the only thing France has to fear in this war. The military clique—every man helping his friend, and everyone helping himself. Royal-ist against republican, clerical against socialist. Above all, favoritism—a strongly entrenched bureaucracy which, until almost too late, not even France's desperate need could overthrow."
Unfortunately the average citizen is biased as to his views on the present European war. Sympathies play an important part. We should remember that we are Americans, no matter whether our parentage be English, French, German, Austrian, Russian, or any other of the battling people of Europe. This country is not involved in war, except to maintain its national dignity, and consequently its citizens should refrain from unjust criticism of the present conflict.
Thus far the Swiss navy has not been called into active service in Europe. Its sailors are doubtless ready and prepared for any emergency and its marine corps and reserve marine corps, could doubtless acquire it self with credit should the time come when its services are demanded. It is ever this tiny republic perched among the Alps will doubtless remain a refuge for the unfortunate of all nations until peace is declared.
The solid south is somewhat broken.
Its new congressmen are not all of them in hearty accord with the Wilson administration since the leaders of the president's policy failed to recognize their demand for aid in handling the present cotton situation south of the Mason and Dixon line.
However, they can be counted as faithful as the twenty Tammany congressmen who will arrive in Washington when the new congress convenes.

REPORTS OF EXPANDING BUS- INESS FROM ALL SIDES.

(By Robert H. Benedict.)

The great commercial organism of this country is taking on new life rapidly, as evidenced by scores of optimistic reports coming in from all directions since the middle of October.

The enormous demands upon us for the warring nations for textiles, cannon, grain, canned meats, flour, and other foodstuffs, motor trucks and automobiles, harness and other leather goods, rubber boots, clothing, and a host of other articles, have given great impetus to a trade that was already reviving to supply home needs.

It must be remembered that the great exports now moving to Europe are in large part extraordinary.
They comprise millions of dollars worth of goods that would not be needed at all in times of peace, or if needed, would be manufactured in Europe.

The meat-packing industry is one of the great beneficiaries, and the packers are buying up all the cattle they can find, at the same time placing big orders for tin for cans.

Makers of textile machinery are buying much pig iron to supply the new demand resulting from large sales of textiles to Europe.

Russia is negotiating in New York for 200 locomotives. France has ordered $25,000,000 worth of six-inch cannon guns from the Bethlehem Steel company.

Activity in the home building trade is bringing many orders for structural steel. The certainty that economy orders will be placed in this country when the time comes to replace bridges and other structures destroyed in the war, gives the steel industry something to look forward to.

If we care to anticipate further, we can see Europe's needs after the war, bringing an unprecedented wave of property to us, but there is enough cheer in the knowledge of what is coming to right now.

From every hand we hear of factories taking on more men and working to capacity to fill European orders. Let us grasp the psychology of the situation and do all we can to spread the news of increasing activity and growing confidence.

North" one of the most dramatic short stories in the English language, will be seen in a six reel film production at the Apollo on Wednesday, for one day. As "Naass" Mr. Bosworth gives a wonderful portrayal of his heroic physique and marked ability combine to make the impersonation a masterpiece.

all over the country. The "White Mod-last summer and come to Myers Theatre direct from an engagement at the Orpheum Theatre of Chicago.

Saving Is Self Protection

Things may not always be as prosperous with you as they are now. If you've got a bank account you are master of conditions under all circumstances. Opportunities come to every one and if you have money in the bank you are in a position to take advantage of them.

ATTACHMENT WRITS ARE FILED AGAINST GEORGE M. DECKER

Miss Florence Child of Edgerton, is Plaintiff in Action to Recover $12,000 Indebtedness.

Writs of attachment were filed in circuit court today by Miss Florence Child of Edgerton and E. J. Sherwood of Mauston, to recover on notes amounting in the aggregate to about $12,000, claimed to be due the plaintiff from George M. Decker, New York. The writs were filed in Wisconsin and that Decker left Janesville on or about October 6th. His last postoffice address known in this city, the affidavit states, was Buffalo, New York. The sheriff left copies of the summons, writs and other papers in the action with Fred J. Bellhaz of this city, the defendant's agent here. The amount of indebtedness to Miss Child, according to the papers on file, is some $12,000 on promissory notes. Ten thousand dollars of the amount is not yet due, but the attachment is made nevertheless. The indebtedness to Sherwood is given as $600. The property attached by the parties is described as 72 1/2 shares of stock in the Janesville Motor company, 8 shares of common stock in the Caloric company and the defendant's interest in certain parcels of real estate which are fully described. T. S. Nolan and L. H. Towne are the attorneys for the plaintiffs.

COW SALE AT HITCH BARN

The sale of cattle advertised to take place at the Janesville Stock Yards on Saturday afternoon will be held at the East Side Hitch barn instead, as I am driving my cattle by road instead of shipping or placing in any stock yard. Sale starts at 2 P. M. Included are 14 head Holstein heifers, 5 head Durham heifers, 6 head Holstein cows, 1 registered Holstein bull, 20 months old, all home bred. All raised and pastured at Brooklyn, Wis. W. T. Dooley, Auctioneer.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

Fireplay.

Contented with the promise of a thousand dollars advance on his contract, providing he returned with horses within a stipulated time, Mr. Hopi Jim Slade drifted quietly away into the desert night.

Well content, persuaded that the morrow's sun would never set upon a world tenanted by one Alan Law, that monomaniac, Seneca Trine, forgot his recent ill temper and set himself diplomatically to adjust the differences between his daughter, Judith, and his first lieutenant, Marrophat.

It was no facile task: Marrophat could not be trusted to work with a single mind because of his infatuation for Judith; Judith could no more be trusted faithfully to serve out her vow to bring Alan Law to her father's feet, alive or dead, because—O cruel irony of Fate!—she herself had fallen in love with that same man whose death she had pledged herself to compass. Only when, as now, half mad with jealousy, determined to see Alan dead rather than yield him to the woman he loved, her sister, might Judith be counted upon to serve her father in his lust for vengeance as he would be served—and even so not without Marrophat at her elbow to egg her on through her resentment of his surveillance. Neither could be trusted, indeed, to work alone to the desired consummation; for Trine had secret reason to fear lest Marrophat might, given opportunity, connive at Alan's escape in order that he might marry Rose and so throw Judith back into his, Marrophat's, arms.

Poor, deluded fool!

Such was the private comment of Marrophat's master.

For all that, it was the man and not his daughter, whom Trine designated to lead the expedition, cunningly counting on Judith's chagrin to work upon her passions and excite her to one last, mad, blind attempt that should prove successful.

Smiling his secret smile, Trine announced his decision at the last moment, while Hopi Jim waited with his horses and an assistant—one Texas—for whose utter innocence of scruples Mr. Slade unhesitatingly vouched.

Sullenly submissive, at least in outward seeming, Judith bowed to this decision, marched out of the car, and suffered Marrophat to help her mount her horse.

Now, deliberately, as the little cavalcade rode through the moonlit desert night, the girl maneuvered her horse to the side of Hopi Jim, and then dropped back, permitting Marrophat to lead the way with Texas.

As deliberately she set herself to work upon the bandit's susceptibility to her charms.

Within an hour she had him ready to do anything to win her smile.

In that first rush of golden day athwart the land, the party came quietly into the town of Mesa, riding slowly in order that the noise of their approach might not warn the fugitives, who Hopi asserted confidently would still be sound asleep in the accommodations offered by the town's hotel.

It was to be termed a town only in courtesy, this Mesa: a straggling street of shacks, ramshackle relics of what had once been a promising community, the half-way station between the railroad and the mining camps secreted in the fastnesses of the Painted hills—camps now abandoned, their very names almost faded out of the memory of mankind.

Midway in this string of edifices the hotel stood—a rough, unpainted, wooden edifice, mainly veranda and bar room as to its lower floor.

Jealously Judith watched the windows of the second floor; and she alone of the four detected the face that showed for one brief instant well back in the shadows beyond one of the bedroom windows—a face that glimmered momentarily with the pallor of a ghost against the background of that obscurity, and then was gone.

Her eyes alone, indeed, could have recognized the features of Alan Law in that fugitive glimpse.

Two sentences exchanged between Hopi Jim and a bear-eyed fellow whom he roused from sodden slumbers behind the bar seated their conscience with conviction: the three fugitives were in fact guests of the house, occupying two of the three rooms that composed its upper story.

In the rush that followed up the narrow stairway, Judith led with such spirit that not even Marrophat suspected her revolver was poised solely with intent to shoot from his hand his own revolver the instant he leveled it at a human target.

Closed and locked doors confronted them; and their summons echoed no response; while the first door, when broken in by a whole-voiced kick, discovered nothing more satisfactory than an empty room, its bed bearing the imprint of a woman's body, but that woman gone.

From the one window, looking down the side of the house, Texas announced that the woman had not escaped by jumping out.

So it seemed that the three must have had warning of their arrival, after all; and presumably were now herded together in the adjoining room, which looked out over the veranda roof, waiting in fear and trembling for the assault that must soon come—and in fact immediately did.

But it met with more stubborn resistance than had been anticipated. The door had been barricaded from within—re-enforced by furniture placed against it. Four minutes and the united efforts of four men (including the bleary loafer of the barroom) were required to overcome its inert resistance. But even when it was down, the room was found to be as empty as the first.

Only the fingers of two hands gripping the edge of the veranda roof showed the way the fugitives had flown; and these vanished instantly as the room was invaded.

Followed a swift rush of hoofs down the dusty street, and a chorus of blasphemy in the hotel hallway: for Judith had headed the concerted rush for the staircase and contrived to block it for a full half minute by pretending to stumble and twist her ankle.

In spite of that alleged injury, she never limped, and wasn't a yard behind the first who broke from the hotel to the open, nor yet appreciably behind him in vaulting to saddle.

Well up the road a cloud of smoky dust half obscured the shapes of three who rode for their very lives.

The pursuit was off in a twinkling and well bunched—Marrophat's mount leading by a nose, Judith second, Hopi Jim and Texas but little in the rear. And in the first rush they seemed to gain; moment by moment they drew up on the flying cloud of dust.

Judith heard an oath muttered beside her and saw Marrophat jerking a revolver from his holster. The weapon swept up and to a level; but as the hammer fell, Judith's horse careered heavily against the other, swinging it half a dozen feet aside, and deflecting the bullet hopelessly.

The shock of collision was so great that Marrophat kept his seat with difficulty. He turned toward Judith a face livid with rage.

Simultaneously, as if taking the shot as the signal for a fusillade, Judith saw Alan lean back over his horse's rump and open fire.

An instant later his companion, Barcus, imitated his example.

In immediate consequence, Texas dropped reins, slumped forward over the pommel, babbling weakly in his saddle for a moment, then losing the stirrups, pitched headlong to the ground; while Hopi Jim's horse stopped short, precipitating his rider overhead, and dropped dead.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

The Upper Trail.

In the ten minutes' delay necessitated by this reverse, a number of more or less innocent bystanders picked up the man Texas and carried him off to breathe his last beneath a roof; Hopi Jim picked himself up, brushed his person tolerably clear of clouds of dust and profanity, and departed in search of a mount to replace the horse that had been shot under him; and Judith sat her horse calmly, smiling sweet insolence into the exasperated countenance of Marrophat.

Incidentally the fugitives disappeared round a bend in the road that led directly into the wild and barren heart of the Painted hills.

In the brief interval that elapsed before his return with Hopi Jim, Marrophat contrived to persuade the bandit that Judith had been, at least indirectly, responsible for the catastrophe, with the upshot that, temporarily blinded to her fascinations by the glitter of nineteen thousand dollars in the near distance, Mr. Slade maintained his distance and a deaf ear to her blandishments. The only information as to their purpose that she was able to extract from either man, when the pursuing party turned aside from the main trail, some distance from Mesa, was that Hopi Jim knew a short cut through the range, via what he termed the upper trail, by which they hoped to be able to head the fugitives off before they could gain the desert on the far side of the hills.

Only at long intervals did they draw rein to permit Hopi Jim to make reconnaissance of the lower trail that threaded the valley on the far side of the ridge.

Toward noon he returned in haste from the last of these surveys—scrambling recklessly down the mountain-side and throwing himself upon his horse with the advice:

"We've headed 'em—can make it now if we ride like all get-out!"

For half an hour more they pushed on at the best speed to be obtained from their weary animals, at length drawing rein at a point where the trail crossed the ridge and widened out upon a long, broad ledge that overhung the valley of the lower trail, with a clear drop to the latter from the brink of a good two hundred feet.

One hasty look back and down into the valley evoked a grunt of satisfaction from Hopi Jim.

"Just in time," he asserted. "Here they come! Ten minutes more!"

His smile answered Marrophat's with unspeakable cruel significance. "Texas" will sleep better tonight when he knows how I've squared the deal for him!" the bandit declared.

"What are you going to do?" Judith demanded, reining her horse in beside Marrophat as the latter dismounted.

A gesture drew her attention to a huge boulder poised insecurely on the very lip of the chasm.

"We're going to tip that over on your friends, Miss Judith!" Marrophat replied, with a smack of relish in his voice. "Simple—neat—efficient—eh? What more can you ask?"

She answered only with an irrepressible gesture of horror. Marrophat's laugh followed her as she turned away.

For some moments she strained her vision vainly, endeavoring to penetrate the turbulent currents of superheated air that filled the valley. Then she made out indistinctly the faintly marked line of the lower trail; and immediately she caught a glimpse of three small figures, mounted, toiling painfully toward the point where death awaited them like a bolt from the blue.

Hastily she glanced over-shoulder: Hopi Jim and Marrophat, ignoring her, were straining themselves against the boulder without boding it an inch, for all its apparent nicety of poise. For an instant a wild hope flashed through her mind, but it was immediately exorcised when Hopi Jim stepped back and uttered a few words of which only two—"dynamic" and "fuse"—reached her ears.

Kneeling beside the boulder he dug busily for an instant, then lodged the stick to his satisfaction, attached the fuse, and breaking off, edged on his belly to the edge of the cliff and looked down, carefully calculating the length of the fuse by the distance of the party down below from the spot where the rock must fall.

But while he was so engaged and Marrophat aided him, all eager interest, Judith was taking advantage of their disregard of her.

Hurriedly unbuttoning her jacket, she whipped a playing card from her pocket, a trey of hearts, and with the stub of a pencil scribbled three words on its face—"Danger! Go back!"

Then finding a small, flatish bit of rock, she bound the card to it with a bit of string; and with one more backward glance to make sure she was not watched, approached the brink.

Hopi Jim was meticulously shortening the fuse, Marrophat kneeling by his side.

In the canyon below the three were within two minutes of the danger point.

It was no trick at all to drop the stone so that it fell within a dozen feet of the leading horseman.

"She saw him reën in suddenly, dismount, cast a look aloft, then dismount and pick up the warning."

As the others joined him, he detached the card and showed it to them. At the same time Hopi Jim and Marrophat jumped up and ran back, each seizing and holding his horse by nose and bridle.

Constrained to do likewise lest she lose her mount, Judith waited with a lightened heart.

The explosion smote dull echoes from the flanks of the Painted hills, all drowsing in the moon-day hush: the boulder teetered reluctantly on the brink, then disappeared with a tearing sound followed by a rush of earth and gravel; a wide gap appeared in the brink of the trail.

Leaving Marrophat to hold the two frightened horses while the girl soothed her own, the bandit rushed to the edge, threw himself flat and swore bitterly, with an accent of grievance, as he rose.

From the canyon below a dull noise of galloping hoofs advertised too plainly the failure of their attempt.

And Hopi Jim turned back only to find Judith mounted, reining her horse in between him and Marrophat, and prepared to give emphasis to what she had to say with an automatic pistol that nestled snugly in her palm.

"One moment, Mr. Slade," she suggested evenly. "Just a moment before you break the sad news to Mr. Marrophat, I've something to say that needs your attention—likewise, your respect. It is this: I am parting company with you and Mr. Marrophat. I am riding on toward the west, by this trail. If either of you care to follow me—the automatic flashed ominously in the sun glare—"it will be with full knowledge of the consequences. Mr. Marrophat will enlighten you if you have any doubt of my ability to take care of myself in such affairs as this. If you are well advised, you will turn back and report failure to my father."

She nodded curtly and swung her horse round.

"And what shall I tell your father from you?" Marrophat demanded sharply.

Dinner Stories

A man very much out of breath ran into the railway station and made a wild rush for the ticket seller's window. A few moments later he came back and sat down with an air of dejection.

"So you missed your train," remarked his neighbor. "I suppose there was a woman at the ticket window hunting for her pocket-book?"

"Worse than that," replied the disappointed one. "There was a fat man trying to get through the turnstile."

"Is your part of the country as wild and woody as ever?"

"Just about. Only last week I saw a friend of mine have a very narrow escape from a band of infuriated Indians. He made a remark that displeased them and about nine

"What did he do?"

"He merely said 'play ball, or I'll fine every one of you'; and they played."

With the boundless enthusiasm of his kind, the food faddist harangued the mob on the marvellous results to be obtained from chewing soap and eating nut butter.

"Friends," he cried, swelling visibly and clapping his chest, "two years ago I was a walking skeleton—a haggard, miserable wreck. What do you suppose brought about this great change in me?"

He paused to see the effect of his words. Then a voice rose from among his listeners: "Wot change?"

BIGGEST VALUE EVER

Hundreds of THE GAZETTE readers are clipping the coupons for Theodore Roosevelt's "African Game Trails," the big book of adventure and wild animal life on the Dark Continent. Here is a book which has always been sold by YOUR OWN BOOKDEALER for $4 and upwards. This is not guesswork—verify it for yourself. It is worth every cent of its $4 price. The present popular edition has been printed from exactly the same plates, with their hundreds of unsurpassed photographs of animal life, to which have now been added a number of superb and costly color plates.

Animals in Color

The true-to-life color studies of the larger African animals in action constitute the most elaborate effort ever made by any publisher of travel books. These full-page reproductions, with their warm tropical colorings, depict the intense ferocity of savage brutes in their final mad endeavors to tear, limb from limb, the intruding hunter.

Here are a few of the color plate subjects:

Charging Rhinoceros
African Buffalo
Leopard Shooting at Close Range
Hippopotamus Hunting
Charging Lion
Near Encounter with a Bull Elephant
Duel Between Lion and Native, etc.

The publication of this book is entirely divorced from politics. Hundreds of thousands who differ with Col. Roosevelt politically, recognize his great ability as a naturalist, hunter and writer, and to them this book will appeal as his masterpiece.

Columbus.
From all accounts, Christopher Columbus was an Italian, having been born in Genoa, Italy. His birth year was 1455 or 1456, the exact date being uncertain. The reason why he entered the service of Spain, rather than that of his native country, was owing to the fact that at that time Italy was not much interested in matters of discovery.

"BLOOD WILL TELL"

The Heroes of the War.

"Blood will tell," is an axiom that in all the ages has never been gained. Every man who does a brave, heroic act carries within his veins a quality of blood that urges and sustains him. No matter whether he inherits it from a long line of famous ancestors or from the sound and healthy constitution of his immediate parents, whose only distinction is honorable toil and a simple, virtuous life. It matters little where or how you obtain it, but it matters all the world that by some means you possess good blood. Good blood is first, last and always the making of manly men and womanly women. It is the source of all courage, virtue and happiness.

A new man can be made out of one that's "used-up," bilious and dyspeptic. It's done by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It starts the torpid liver into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, cleanses, repairs and strengthens the system, and restores health and vigor. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, and builds up flesh and strength. It's the only Blood and Liver Remedy that's guaranteed, in every case, to benefit or cure. If it doesn't do all that's claimed for it, the money is promptly refunded. But it keeps its promises—that's the reason it can be sold in this way.

It is not a secret remedy for its ingredients are printed on wrapper. You only pay for the good you get. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens weak lungs, relieves Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections.

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, bound in cloth, is sent free on receipt of 3 cent stamps to pay expense of wrapping and mailing only. Address: Doctor Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove it.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system.

They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color.

Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Climate rained; Medicine Effective

Sufferers from Tuberculosis often think that medicine will not help them. Fresh air, regular habits and good food aid in restoring health, but more is often needed. Many have been restored to health by Eckman's Alterative.

Evansville News

Evansville, Nov. 6.—The regular meeting of the Ammon council of the city of Evansville was held this week in the clerk's office, meeting being called to order at 7:30 by Mayor Fear.

Present aldermen—Axtell, Babcock, Shreve, Williams and Winston. Minutes of meeting of October 5, 20 and 23, were read and approved. W. G. Patterson was elected a member of the water and light commission for three years.

The question of the making of a suitable city map was referred to the street and alley committee.

The following resolution, giving official names to streets was adopted: Whereas, certain streets have been laid out and extended, to wit: One street running along the southern boundary of the city limits from Second street west to the fair grounds, and one along the southern boundary of the city limits from Madison street east along the southern boundary of Walker's addition, which streets have never been officially named; and Whereas, at the time that the street running south from Main street to Liberty street, sometimes known as Railroad street, was extended, having been given to said street, it being sometimes called Railroad street and sometimes Maple avenue, and

Whereas it is desirable of having the name of said street corrected and permanently fixed, and of having the two new streets above mentioned, officially named, therefore, Be it resolved that the street running south from Main street to Water street, sometimes called Maple avenue and sometimes called Railroad street, be and the same is hereby named and designated as Maple street.

Be it further resolved that the new street running west along the southern boundary of the city limits from Second street west to the fair grounds, be and the same is hereby named and designated as Fair street.

Be it further resolved that the street heretofore mentioned, running along the southern boundary of the city limits from Madison street east along the southern boundary of Walker's addition, be, and the same is hereby named and designated as Walker street.

The usual bills were ordered paid, after which meeting adjourned.

TO BUILDING CONTRACTORS. Sealed proposals will be received by the State Board of Control of Wisconsin, at its office in the Capitol Building, Madison, Wisconsin, up to ten o'clock A. M. December first, A. D. 1914, for furnishing all the material and labor necessary for the erecting and completing of a school and dormitory building at the Wisconsin School for the Blind, Janesville, Wisconsin, according to the plans and specifications prepared for said work by Van Ryn & DeGroot, Architects, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Plans and specifications will be on file in the office of the State Board of Control of Wisconsin, at the office of Van Ryn & DeGroot, Architects, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; the office of the Builders & Traders Exchange, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; and the office of the Builders & Traders Exchange, Janesville, Wisconsin; and the office of Superintendent J. T. Hooper, of the Wisconsin School for the Blind, Janesville, Wisconsin.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check in the sum of at least ten per cent of the amount of the bid and must be payable to the order of Ralph E. Smith, President of the State Board of Control of Wisconsin, to be forfeited to the State if the contractor fails to execute the contract within the time specified in the contract.

Bids should be sealed and enclosed in an envelope which should be addressed to the State Board of Control of Wisconsin, at the office of Van Ryn & DeGroot, Architects, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and upon the envelope enclosing the sealed proposal should appear the name and address of the bidder, and the words "Proposal for School and Dormitory Building, School for the Blind, Janesville."

The Board has a limited number of plans and specifications which will be sent out to the bidders upon application, provided that a deposit of $10.00 is made with the Board to secure the return of the plans.

QUARANTINE STOPS CATTLE SHIPMENTS

STOCKMEN AND DAIRYMEN ARE ANXIOUS THAT EVERY PRECAUTION BE TAKEN.

MAY MEAN HEAVY LOSS

Infected Herd at Evansville Will Be Extirpated at Once and Inspection Continued.

The quarantine which was imposed by the federal government upon Wisconsin yesterday stops all shipments of cattle into or out of the state. This order is similar to the ones issued for Ohio, Indiana and Illinois and was brought about by the discovery of a herd of cattle infected with the foot and mouth disease on the Miller farm near Evansville. In the meantime additional inspectors have been rushed to this state and examination of cattle in Rock, Waushara, Jefferson and Dane counties will be continued with all possible dispatch. The quarantine is a protective measure taken to prevent the spread of the disease which is highly contagious.

Wisconsin's First Experience. According to Prof. A. W. Hopkins of the university agricultural department this is the first experience Wisconsin has had with the foot and mouth disease. He stated that the fever is widely prevalent in Europe and almost new to the United States. It has been known to exist in the past, but there is no record of its occurrence in this country. The disease results in a reduction of milk and a falling off in the milk supply. It is evidenced by a watering of the mouth and corners of the feet.

According to Dr. R. L. Brown, a local veterinarian, the fever has been prevalent before in Wisconsin. In his recollection it was found in the northern part of the state and certain communities were quarantined until danger had passed.

Arthur G. Metzinger, proprietor of a local meat market, said this afternoon that a slight increase in meats could doubtless be felt here among dealers dependent on supplies from the Chicago packing plants. Local markets which do their own slaughtering, as such, are not expected to make any material raise as they are said to have enough stock on hand to last for at least thirty days.

May Future Stock Cars. Fred W. Zimmerman, Janesville agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway here, said this morning that if the state ordered a general quarantining of railway stock cars, those cars in Janesville on the St. Paul could be fumigated at once. The company has chemical supplies on hand for just such emergencies.

At the Northwestern yards fumigation was started this afternoon. Dr. John Perschbacher, veterinary surgeon, has never seen a case of the disease. He claimed that this is the first time that Wisconsin has experienced an outbreak. Two other cases or outbreaks have been experienced in this country. In 1902, Pennsylvania and New York were quarantined, and in 1909 Michigan and Pennsylvania were placed under the ban.

He did not go to Evansville to inspect the herd because the disease is contagious and can be carried away on the clothes. He was also of the opinion that all railroad stock cars in the state should be thoroughly fumigated.

Further Quarantine. Washington, Nov. 6.—Federal quarantine to check the spread of foot and mouth disease was extended today over the states of Ohio and Michigan by Secretary Houston of the department of agriculture.

Prompt Measures Taken. Following the discovery of the foot and mouth disease among the cattle on the Miller farm, the animals were examined by the state veterinarian and by Dr. A. E. Behnke of Milwaukee, inspector in charge of the bureau of animal industry for Wisconsin.

As soon as the nature of the disease had been determined, the department of agriculture was informed of the situation in the state, and the state livestock sanitary board was notified. A conference was held in Milwaukee between the experts and the representatives of the stockyards and the sanitary board, and prompt measures were taken to prevent the spread of the disease. Within an hour, however, the United States agricultural department had taken steps to place the entire state in quarantine, the order having been received Thursday night by Dr. Behnke.

Quarantine Is Ordered.

The text of the order is as follows: By order of the department of agriculture, the state of Wisconsin is placed in quarantine against the foot and mouth disease. Interstate or foreign shipment therefrom is forbidden of all animals during the existence of the quarantine. Shipment therefrom is forbidden of dressed carcasses of calves, sheep or other ruminants to any other state or foreign country. From any point in the area quarantined, unless the live animals and hoofs are removed from the carcasses. Shipments, interstate or foreign, of hay, straw or other fodder, manure or litter is forbidden, unless the same shall have been disinfected prior to shipment under the supervision of an inspector of the bureau of animal industry. No railway cars or boats within the area quarantined, which have carried livestock, shall be moved interstate until the said cars or boats have been cleaned and disinfected with a 5 per cent solution of carbolic acid or a 3 per cent solution of cresol compound, or other permitted disinfectant.

Every Precaution Taken.

It is of importance to the livestock interests of the country and to the railroads engaged in the transportation of livestock that this disease be eradicated as soon as possible and that every precaution be taken to maintain the danger of its further spread.

Four additional inspectors for the federal bureau of animal industry arrived in the state today from St. Louis and are expected to arrive in Janesville tonight to continue the inspection work in Rock county. Every herd of cattle in Rock, Waushara, Dane and Jefferson counties will be subjected to examination to ascertain promptly if any of the cattle have contracted the foot and mouth disease. The cattle in this section include the finest and most valuable in the country and it is hoped by the representatives of the federal bureau that these herds can be saved from the disease.

Dairymen Face Losses. The animals will be appraised, when the disease appears in a herd, and all will be slaughtered, the owner being paid the appraised value by the government. The appraisal will be on the basis of the ordinary milk cows, it is said, and many Wisconsin dairymen are in danger of selling herds of pure bred cattle that have cost them many thousands at the price of "feeders."

That the discovery of the foot and mouth disease in a herd of Wisconsin cattle will injure the dairy business of the state enormously is admitted by the officials who are handling the situation, but they say they are helpless under the circumstances. Private interests can not be considered, they say, when the welfare of the entire country is at stake.

Constipation a Penalty of Age

Nothing is so essential to health in advancing age as keeping the bowels open. It makes one feel younger and fresher and forestalls all fevers and other dependent ills.

Cathartics and purgatives are violent and drastic in action and should be avoided. A mild, effective laxative- tonic, recommended by physicians and thousands who have used it, is the combination of simple herbs with pepsin sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The price is fifty cents and six dollars a bottle. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

"We do not know how extensively the disease has gained a foothold in Wisconsin," said Dr. Behnke, after he received the quarantine order Thursday night. "We do know, however, that the disease was prevalent among cattle shown at the Chicago livestock show, and as it is highly contagious and can be carried readily in the clothing, every Wisconsin cattle raiser may have taken it back to his herd."

Fear Cattle Exposed. "Every Wisconsin animal that was shown in Chicago at that time—and I understand there were thousands of them—may have been exposed. We will begin a war of extermination on Friday and will kill the 115 contaminated animals at Evansville. Every animal that is found to have the disease will be slaughtered, as well as every animal in the herd where disease has appeared. The loss to the dairy interests of the state may be enormous, but it can not be helped."

It is true that contagion from cows affected with the foot and mouth disease may be carried in milk and butter from a dairy where the herd has the foot and mouth disease, but every effort will be made to prevent the distribution of milk and butter from herds affected."

Resent Wyoming's Action.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 6.—The Livestock Sanitary Board of Wisconsin takes strong exception to the quarantine issued by the state of Wyoming recently on Wisconsin cattle, except when such cattle are tested by a federal veterinarian. In a letter the president, C. H. Everett, and the secretary, State Veterinarian O. H. Eliason, make it plain that the complaints which gave rise to this action upon Wisconsin cattle were all from the same source, and that the operations conducted by a certain firm of cattle dealers have been closed up by the board at least six months ago.

The firm referred to has been accused of shipping diseased cattle from this to other states in violation of laws. The general reputation of resident dealers in this state is good, and almost all of them guarantee the stock to pass a satisfactory test after 60 or 90 days after the animals have reached their destination. The board feels that this is more than dealers of other states have done and therefore commends the action of Wisconsin dealers. It is noted that the difficulties over these shipments arose at a time when desperate measures were resorted to to get cattle out of the quarantine area in other states.

SICK AUTO CAUSES GREAT EXCITEMENT

Crowd on Milwaukee Street at Six O'Clock Last Evening Hears Reports of "Shooting Affair."

"Bang!" A pistol-like report brought the pedestrians on Milwaukee street to a stop as they were hurrying to their homes from work.

There was only a short interval until a double report echoed down Milwaukee street that brought pedestrians to a stop and shopkeepers to the front doors, hurrying to see the cause of the shooting. A policeman stationed at the River street corner, at the first report, hurried into action and displayed a little speed in getting through the shocked crowd to the next corner where the sounds came from. Everyone expected to see a shooting episode that would rival the repeated killings on "Death Corner" in Chicago.

Everyone was disappointed. The disturbance was only caused by a sick automobile and the attempts of its owner to remedy the evils of a worn-out motor. The crippled auto did not appear to care for its nurse's treatment, for every time the man touched a "dingamarius" the auto rebelled and let out an explosion and shattered fire from the exhaust. The owner was the center of attraction for a large crowd and his repeated attempts to find the ill of the bumpy gas wagon resulted in a series of rapid fire explosions that sounded like a battery of Gatling guns in action.

Speaks About Japan.

AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

A missionary supper and program was given last evening at the Baptist church. Supper was served at 6:30. During the evening Mrs. Hibbard, who is a guest in the city from Japan, spoke on "My Japanese Friends and Neighbors," which was much enjoyed by every one present.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY

ENJOY A SOCIAL MEETING

The Young People's Society of the Norwegian Lutheran church met last evening in the church parlors. A delightful program was rendered. The male quartet sang several selections. The Rev. T. C. Thorson gave an interesting talk, which was much appreciated. Several vocal selections by Oscar Hammarlund were very well rendered. The next monthly meeting of the society will be held Thursday evening, Nov. 19.

WOULD-BE SUICIDE WILL BE EXAMINED

Robert Armitage Will Be Examined to Determine Sanity—Family Refuses to Aid Him.

Robert Armitage, the chimney sweep, who attempted to commit suicide in the city hall police station Thursday morning, was taken to the Rock county jail to be examined by physicians as to the man's sanity. This morning when the police went to the cell room, Armitage was talking incoherently, believing that he was inside of a mansion and was trying to attract the attention of a woman whom he imagined to be on a stairway above him.

The authorities phoned to his relatives in Milwaukee as to what was being done by his mother and that he has two brothers residing in that city, one of whom is employed at the postoffice, and the other an officer in the state militia. The family refused to aid the man here, stating that he had caused trouble by his incessant drinking. Armitage will be held in the county jail until he is examined to determine if his derangement is caused by over-drink.

ITCHED FOR 20 YEARS, RESINOL CURED IN 10 DAYS

Baltimore, Md.—"About twenty years ago both my legs began to itch from ankle to knee. Little pimples came out. The itching and burning was something terrible. I would start to scratch and could not stop. I would even scratch through the skin and that of course would leave a sore which I was compelled to bandage.

"I tried several prescriptions and treatments, but received not a particle of benefit—no more than if the treatments were cold water. I then began to have very little faith in anything and of course could do nothing but scratch away.

"After suffering constantly for twenty years, a friend recommended Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. From the very first application, I found relief, and was entirely cured in ten days. The itching and stinging sensations have ceased and my skin is as smooth as a child's." (Signed) Charles Warner, 1123 N. Stricker St.

Every druggist sells Resinol Soap (25c), and Ointment (50c and $1).

WAUPUN IS THREATENED FOR HABITUAL DRUNKARDS

"Unless you white-lighters" are going to quit disgracing the city of Janesville, you are going to Waupun," declared Judge H. L. Maxfield to Edward Reynolds when Reynolds was arraigned in the municipal court this morning on the charge of drunkenness.

Reynolds admitted being drunk when arrested last evening and admitted that his court record indicates him to be a habitual offender. Reynolds' last term of six months has been served out only a short time. He was called to the bench and given the illustrated lecture on the Varden Daniel Woodward and the state penitentiary. Judge Maxfield adjourned Reynolds' case until tomorrow morning at ten o'clock, when sentence will be pronounced.

Joe Harrington, a young man of Edgerton, was the second drunk to be brought in court this morning and he drew fifteen days or fifteen dollars on his plea of guilty.
